From Vice-Chancellor's Desk

Dear Readers,

We continue to strive and find ways for attaining excellence in teaching, research, administration and extension for professional development of students and welfare of farming community. RAJUVAS has shown exceptional pace of its growth in a small span of almost eleven years and converting itself as multi-faculty university covering wider gamut of Veterinary and Animal Husbandry sector including dairy and food science technology. It's my pleasure to share my experience and efforts with you that University has prepared 'RAJUVAS Vision-2030' wherein efforts have been made to prepare a roadmap for almost next ten years keeping in view our strengths, comprehensive evaluation of the works done in the past and future needs and challenges. This vision document comprises of almost all the essential aspects of working policy and guidelines for teaching, research, extension and financial strengthening of University for furthering quality improvement in animal husbandry and veterinary profession in the state and to impact the rural masses with prosperity. The vision 2030 is an attempt to document future realistic goals to develop RAJUVAS as a leading higher educational institution in the county and attain unique identity for generating quality human and knowledge resources.

Rajasthan is the only state in the country where more than half of the total income comes through animal husbandry and agriculture sector. State government has also given due importance to RAJUVAS for development of animal husbandry in the state. While considering all these facts and while keeping in mind the welfare of livestock owners, RAJUVAS has been conducting different skill development programmes for farmers, students and veterinary professionals through different trainings and research centres. The University regularly organized trainings and extension programmes for ensuring knowledge and skills of different stakeholders including livestock farmers. The Government has always been in support of RAJUVAS while considering conservation and propagation of germ plasm of desi cattle breed. Sincere efforts will be made to transform all livestock research stations to become self-sufficient. Thus University takes pride in having seven different advanced state-funded research centres.

I am confident that RAJUVAS will attain greater heights of excellence nationally and internationally in days to come and significantly contribute in transforming livelihood resources of livestock owners for ensuring social improvement of farmers and livestock owners.

I wish you all a happy and prosperous New Year-2022.

(Satish K. Garg)
Vice-Chancellor
